Demonstrations and Illustrated Talks

Demonstrations and Illustrated Talks

- A "show and tell" presentation using props, and other visual aids.
- Tell about a topic in an illustrated talk.
- A finished product is often shown.
- Team demonstrations and illustrated talks are allowed (two members on a team)
- Topic needs to be related to members 4-H project.

Speech -Prepared and Impromptu

Speech-is a talk given without props or visual aids.
There are two types of speeches:

Prepared -

- aims to persuade, motivate or inform the audience.
- The 4-H member prepares a topic related to 4-H and gives the speech.

Impromptu -

- aims to persuade, motivate or inform the audience.
- The 4-H member chooses a topic from a hat and has 10 minutes to develop a speech topic

Interpretive Reading

Interpretive Reading:

- uses vocal inflections and body language as communication tool.
- Delivers a rendition of a piece of pre-written material.
- The material should be selected from a book, poem, story, etc.
- Should be 4-H appropriate
- Costumes and small props can be used
- Not intended for original material written by the presenter.
