Project Tips:

- In Units 3 and 4, members select a chapter to focus on during this project year. Unit 3 is based on chapters covering topics on arts and crafts, play, music and rhythm, stories and poems and snacks as it pertains to infants, toddlers, and preschoolers. Unit 3 members can stay in this unit for more than one year by taking a different chapter each year. Unit 4 is based on chapters covering topics on guidance and discipline, parties, mealtime, safety and careers. Unit 4 members can stay in this unit for more than one year by taking a different chapter each year. Members are to complete the More To Grow On questions at the end of each chapter studied.
- Follow unit requirements and rules in the state fair exhibit requirements.
- In all units give a demonstration about something you have learned in this project. Members also help with a community service project relating to child development.
- Have fun with the 4-H story section of e-record. Follow directions and tell what you learned.
- Enter your exhibit in the county fair
- Share the information learned in talks and displays
