INTRODUCTION

90501A
Leader's Guide

You are a 4-H leader! You've said "YES!" to volunteering your time and expertise to work with young people in your community.

You may have second thoughts. You might wonder what you've "got yourself into," and what you are supposed to do in the year that lies ahead.

Parts of this guide will help you answer some of the questions that may come up as a volunteer. There are different sheets that may help you prepare for your position as a 4-H volunteer. The Table of Contents will help you find what you need!

If you cannot find the information you need, call your Colorado State University Cooperative Extension agent or an experienced 4-H leader. They will be happy to help you!
